

Our business development professionals will do their best to make starting and running a business in Kennesaw a streamlined and pleasant experience. Getting your business successfully launched, then helping it thrive is our main goal.

So how do I get started?

Please refer to the tabs at the left for specific information about our process. Staff members will be glad to answer your questions and assist you with your paperwork; each tab provides contact information for the city employee who can best help you.